

Announcing Partnership with American Bible Society

We are very excited to announce a new partnership that was formed this summer with American Bible Society's Trauma Healing Institute. American Bible Society partners with local churches equipping them to respond to the suffering and trauma in their communities using the Trauma Healing Institute's program.

Transform Minnesota's Trauma Healing Initiative will be hosting several events this fall, helping train ministry leaders and pastors meet critical needs in their church and communities.

More Resources

The Church and a Native Perspective

Transform Minnesota's Katy St. John sat down with TJ Valtierra, a Pastor at Testimony Church in South Minneapolis who is a rapper, coach, father, and community leader. After coming to Jesus at the age of 21 after a time of drug use and being in gang life, the core of all he does center's around Jesus and his love for his people.

As a resident of Little Earth and an enrolled member of the Red Lake Band of Ojibwe people, he works primarily with the Native Community.

Transform Upcoming Events

Trauma Healing Initiative

On September 15 and September 16, we will be hosting two Trauma Healing Convening Sessions for ministry leaders to be given an overview of what the Trauma Healing Institute does to meet the needs of hurting communities.
