Christian Leadership Amid Cultural Conflict

On May 18, over 250 pastors and ministry leaders came together for a lunch-time gathering, Christian Leadership Amid Cultural Conflict; A Leadership Forum with Dr. Russell Moore.

Dr. Moore with Christianity Today, shared about the state of crisis in the Church and gave a message of hope, insight, and perspective.

"We need to realize that what we have for this moment ought to be an opportunity to reclaim something."

Celebrating Juneteenth

June 19, 2022 is the second year Juneteenth stands as a US federal holiday. This is the 157-year celebration of enslaved people in Texas learning of their freedom.

American Bible Society's Nena Podbury encourages us, "This Juneteenth, as we remember the events that led to the end of slavery, let us be inspired to pursue justice by praying for healing from the divisive spirit of racism."

Sankofa Journey to Harmony Reflection

Early in May 2022, 32 Twin Cities ministry leaders embarked on the fourth Sankofa

Journey to Harmony and traveled to important places from the Civil Rights Movement. Leaders came together to learn and grow with one another as they made the journey.

Sankofa Reflection 2022: Aware of the Past to Transform the Future

by Samantha Willis

"As a mixed person this trip gave me a deeper appreciation for my community, my parents, and all those who have gone before me to make it even possible for me to be in existence."
