Engaging the Story of Race

More than 75 pastors and ministry leaders came together last month to learn more about race and reconciliation from the team at OneRace Movement. The group came away from the training with a call to be fueled by Christ in their efforts to know, own, and change the story of race and racism in the United States.

Read more about the Know. Own. Change. training.

"At the heart of racial reconciliation is the gospel, and OneRace is all about the gospel! Thank you for leading the way in this hard work. You are greatly appreciated!"

- Pastor Brian Kite, Shalom Community Church

OneRace Pastors' Groups

We have a great group of leaders ready to head up the OneRace Pastors' Groups initiative here in the Twin Cities!

These groups are designed to empower and equip pastors and ministry leaders for the work of Gospel centered reconciliation into oneness in the Church. Pastors' groups will officially kick off at the end of August.

Any pastors or ministry leaders interested in joining a monthly group focused on championing reconciliation in the Church can complete this interest form to be added to the Pastors' Groups list.

Employment Law Changes Affecting Churches

In June, more than 100 participants joined us for our Minnesota Employment Law Changes webinar. Attorney Virginia Cronin was able to provide further information about the wide-ranging changes which will affect churches and ministries in the coming months.

Generational Shifts in Evangelism

September 21, 2023
1:00 - 4:00 PM
New Hope Church

How does our preaching and presentation of the Gospel stay true to scripture while speaking to the felt need of each generation?

As a new generation comes of age, society is being reminded that each generation has a unique approach to how they view the world. These differences have implications for the Church as we continue the work of spreading the Gospel.

Approaches to evangelism that answered the questions of previous generations are not answering the questions of millennials and Gen Z. While the Gospel stays the same, we must adjust our approach and learn to provide a contextual message.

Join us on September 21 at New Hope Church as Rev. Dr. James Choung, Vice President of Strategy and Innovation for InterVarsity, provides insight on how to shape preaching and calls to faith based on the unique needs of a new generation.

Registration ends August 1!

There are still a few spots left to join us on Sankofa 2023! This interpersonal, revelatory, transformative experience will be incomplete without you!

As Josh Clemons said on stage at Know. Own. Change., Sankofa is for those who are sold-out to the cause. While this trip will be emotionally and spiritually heavy, sitting in that history with a like-minded group of church leaders will help you experience transformation in yourself which you can bring back to your community.
