Complex Issues. Biblical Perspective.

The Effective End of Affirmative Action

At the end of June, the Supreme Court rendered a decision which effectively ends affirmative action practices in college admissions. As people who care about racial justice, we believe addressing racial gaps and historic injustices must continue in spite of this court decision.

Read more about the ongoing work of addressing historic injustice in education.

Racial Harmony Resources

We've created a list of resources featuring past conference speakers who share the pursuit of racial justice and reconciliation. The list includes:

- Podcasts
- Video Presentations and Curriculum
- Print Materials
- and More!

Visit our website to view our Racial Harmony Resources and Resolutions or click the image to download the resource list!

Pastors' Groups Starting Soon!

We have a great group of leaders ready to head up the OneRace Pastors' Groups initiative here in the Twin Cities!

These groups are designed to empower and equip pastors and ministry leaders for the work of Gospel-centered reconciliation unto oneness in the Church. Pastors' groups will officially kick off at the end of August.

Any pastors or ministry leaders interested in joining a monthly group focused on championing reconciliation in the Church can complete this interest form to be added to the Pastors' Groups list.
