Complex Issues. Biblical Perspective.

Register soon - Ticket prices increase
Thursday!

How do we break free from the pressure of political tribes and consider issues biblically this election season?

Join us at Cedar Valley Church on May 16. Justin Giboney of the AND Campaign will lead us in a one-day conference encouraging Christians to navigate the 2024 election cycle and its aftermath by embracing "10 Disciplines for Christian Civic Engagement."

Justin and additional speakers will also discuss how to look at current public policy issues from distinctly biblical values:

- Sanctity of life & human dignity
- Immigration
- Racial justice
- Religious freedom
- and more!

There will be lots of time for group participation and conversation!

Register soon - space will fill up! Click here for more

Evening Event: The Church Politics Podcast

General registration opens April 16!

Join us at Cedar Valley Church on May 16 at 7:00 PM for a live recording of the Church Politics podcast with Justin Giboney and Chris Butler. The recording is free, registration is required to attend.

Registrants of Civic Revival can already register to attend the podcast recording! Just click the "Yes I'm coming to the recording" checkbox in your conference registration.

Presented by the AND Campaign, the Church Politics podcast provides in-depth political analysis from a Christian worldview. Join us as Justin and Chris have a discussion about major current events, take a deep dive into a local issue with a special guest, and interact with the audience during a live Q&A.

A Call to Restore Religious Exemption to Minnesota Law

Recent events in the Minnesota legislature have stirred a multifaceted, nuanced conversation extending from gender identity to religious freedom in hiring practices.

Transform Minnesota is continuing to engage nuanced conversations about complex issues, including the ways we can approach our LGBT community members with love and care. We also believe a religious exemption in hiring practices allows religious organizations to hire those who share the faith that informs both their love for others and their beliefs about human identity and behavior.

You can find links below to: read our pastor-endorsed statement calling for the reinstatement of a religious exemption in hiring practices; read and sign a related petition; and send an action alert to your legislators.

Sankofa at Home

This month, Sankofa at Home returns to southern Minnesota for a stop at Traverse des Sioux.

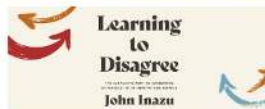

Traverse des Sioux is the location for the signing of the Treaty of Traverse des Sioux on July 23, 1851. Through this treaty and the subsequent Treaty of Mendota, the four Dakota bands living in Minnesota ceded 24 million acres of land to the U.S. Government.

Today, Traverse des Sioux includes the Treaty Site History Center in St. Peter with exhibits about the Dakota and the treaty. A trail system with informational markers, a marker for the location of treaty signing, and exhibits about the history of Nicollet County can also be found at the site.

Additional Events

Learning to Disagree

April 21, 2024
6:30 PM - 8:00 PM

Christ Presbyterian Church
Edina MN

Disagreement is hard: we tend to view our adversaries not only as wrong but as evil; we resist notions of forgiveness; we distrust institutions that try to mediate our disagreements. But what if a better way was possible?

Join Anselm House for a dialog with John Inazu and Sara Groves about John's new book, Learning to Disagree: The Surprising Path to Navigating Differences with Empathy and Respect.
