Beyond Voting Part 1:
How Theology Shapes Political Engagement
February 18, 2025 | 1:00 PM | Cost: $15

Save $15! Register for all three webinars for $30 total!
Each webinar will be recorded and distributed to attendees following the webinar*

Political engagement doesn't stop after an election. As politicians settle into the role of governing, how should Christians remain politically engaged and advocate for their ideals?

Join us February 18 as Dr. Daniel Lee Hill, Assistant Professor of Christian Theology at George W. Truett Theological Seminary at Baylor University, helps us better understand how theology shapes our political engagement as Christians.

- During this webinar, you will learn more about:
- The history and aspects of different Christian political theologies
 - The ways political theology informs the way we structure society
 - The relationship between Christian practice and political practice

Exiles Spotlight

Confronting Injustice Without Compromising Truth: 12 Questions Christians Should Ask About Social Justice

This month's Exiles spotlight is Confronting Injustice Without Compromising Truth by Dr. Thaddeus J. Williams! Drawing from a diverse range of theologians, sociologists, artists, and activists, Dr. Williams "makes the case that we must be discerning if we are to 'truly execute justice' as Scripture commands. Not everything called "social justice" today is compatible with a biblical vision of a better world. The Bible offers hopeful and distinctive answers to deep questions of worship, community, salvation, and knowledge that ought to mark a uniquely Christian pursuit of justice."
