

Kingdom Allegiance in a World of Political Loyalties

Throughout the Bible, the people of God are identified as exiles on the Earth. This imagery reminds Christians that our allegiance is not to an earthly kingdom, but to a kingdom not of this world.

This is the idea that informed our Exiles conference breakout session, Kingdom Allegiance in a World of Political Loyalties. Click below to see how pastors in Minnesota see politics affecting the Church, and how Christians can develop a kingdom mindset to engage society.

How Does Spiritual Formation Inform Political Engagement?

"You need to continue to be faithful, to use your voice and use your conviction to work for the public good of others."

Last month, Transform Minnesota concluded our Beyond Voting webinar series with a discussion about the relationship between spiritual formation and public engagement. Steve Eng, Advocacy Director for the NAE, provided insight into the ways Christians can reframe their engagement when they find their identity in Christ.

Replanting a Historic Minneapolis Megachurch

Pastor Jeremy Adelman discusses the process of replanting First Baptist Church of Minneapolis as River City Church.

"As we stepped into uncharted territory, we sensed God rekindling the pioneering spirit that planted our church in the first place. This time, however, we were't planting from nothing, we were repanting, standing on the shoulders of the saints who had gone before us."

Mental Health as Followers of Jesus

True life-to-life disciplinmaking can bring out the areas of challenge in our own lives, and mental health is an increasingly urgent issue for many. Together, let's start the conversation to reduce the stigma of mental health issues in the Body of Christ and learn practical tools for yourself and those you walk alongside.

Join The Navigators for a half-day seminar where local Christian mental health leaders and professionals will teach, share practical skills, and answer questions. The seminar aims to encourage one another towards love, healing and wholeness in Christ in this important area of our lives.
