Sankofa @ Home: Rondo Neighborhood

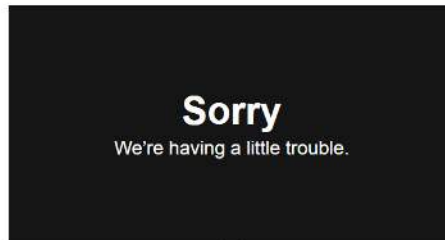

"Transform's Sankofa experience helped us listen, learn, and celebrate what God is doing in the Rondo Neighborhood!"

55 church leaders joined Transform Minnesota in the Rondo neighborhood for our first ever in-person Sankofa @ Home experience. Built on the model of our Sankofa trips to the southeast, Sankofa @ Home offers participants the opportunity to learn about the historical realities of racism in Minnesota and understand how that legacy continues to affect our communities today.

Faith for Normal People Ep. 59: Malcolm Foley - The Connection Between Racism and Greed

"In this episode of Faith for Normal People, Pete and Jared sit down with Malcolm Foley to explore the connection between racism and greed in American history, and the calling of Christians to live differently. Drawing from his book The Anti-Greed Gospel, they discuss how economic self-interest has fueled racial injustice, how the church has been both complicit and resistant, and what it means to practice economic solidarity rooted in the life of Jesus."
